ACTS, 1908.

Certified Copy of a Report of the Committee of the Privy Council, approved by His Excellency the Governor-General on the 15th February, 1909.

THE Committee of the Privy Council have had under consideration a memorandum, dated 19th November, 1908, from the Minister of Justice, stating that he has under consideration a Statute of the Legislature of British Columbia, passed in the eighth year of His Majesty's reign (1908), and received by the Secretary of State for Canada on 18th February, 1908, being Chapter 23, intituled "An Act to regulate Immigration into British Columbia."

The Committee, on the recommendation of the Minister of Justice, and for the reasons mentioned by his predecessors in office, and for the additional reason mentioned in the report of the Minister of Justice above referred to and attached hereto, advise that the said statute of British Columbia be disallowed.

The Committee, on the same recommendation, further advise that a copy of this Minute, if approved, together with the report of the Minister of Justice, be transmitted to the Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia for the information of his Government.

All which is respectfully submitted for approval.

F. K. BENNETTS,

Assistant Clerk of the Privy Council.

*His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor,
Province of British Columbia.*

OTTAWA, 19th November, 1908.

To His Excellency the Governor-General in Council:

The undersigned has under consideration a statute of the Legislature of British Columbia, passed in the eighth year of His Majesty's reign (1908), and received by the Secretary of State for Canada on 18th February last, being Chapter 23, intituled "An Act to Regulate Immigration into British Columbia," and he has the honour to report as follows:—

This Act is in terms substantially a re-enactment of a similar statute bearing the same title which has been several times enacted by the Local Legislature and as often disallowed by the Governor-General in Council. See the report of Hon. Mr. Mills, Minister of Justice, of 5th January, 1901; his report of 4th September, 1901, approved by His Excellency on the 11th September, 1901; the report of the Hon. Mr. Fitzpatrick of 14th November, 1902, approved by His Excellency on 5th December, 1902; his report of 1st October, 1903, approved by His Excellency on 26th March, 1904; his report of 16th November, 1904, approved by your Excellency on 20th January, 1905; his report of 19th April, 1905, approved by your Excellency on 28th April, 1905, and his report of 18th September, 1905, approved by your Excellency on the 30th September, 1905.

By Dominion Statute, the Japanese Act, 1906, (6-7 E. VII, c. 50) the convention of 31st January, 1906, between the United Kingdom and Japan is declared to be sanctioned. By Article 1 of this Convention the High Contracting parties agree that the stipulations of the treaty of commerce and navigation between Great Britain and Japan of 16th July, 1894, and of the Supplementary Convention of 16th July, 1905, shall be applied to the intercourse, commerce and navigation between the Empire of Japan and the British Dominion of Canada. By Article 1 of the said treaty of commerce and navigation of 16th July, 1894, it is provided that the subjects of each of the two high contracting parties shall have full liberty to enter, travel or reside in any part of the Dominions and possessions of the other contracting party, and shall enjoy full and perfect protection for their persons and property.

The British Columbia Immigration Act, 1908, is therefore subject not only to all the objections on account of which the preceding statutes of similar import were disallowed, but in so far as it affects Japanese subjects coming into British Columbia it is also repugnant to the provisions of the said Dominion Statute, the effect of which is, as has been stated, to confer upon Japanese subjects full liberty to enter, travel or reside in any part of the Dominion.

The undersigned, therefore, for the reasons mentioned by his predecessors in office, and for the additional reason mentioned in this report, recommends that the said Statute of British Columbia be disallowed, and he recommends that a copy of this report, if approved, be transmitted to the Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia for the information of his Government.

Humbly submitted,

(Sd.) A. B. AYLESWORTH,
Minister of Justice.

AT THE GOVERNMENT HOUSE AT OTTAWA.

Monday, the 15th day of February, 1909.

PRESENT:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL
IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS the Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of British Columbia with the Legislative Assembly of that Province did, on the 11th day of February, 1908, pass an Act, Chapter 23, which has been transmitted, intituled "An Act to regulate Immigration into British Columbia."

said Act be disallowed, has been laid before His Excellency the Governor-General in Council.

Therefore His Excellency the Governor-General in Council is pleased to declare his disallowance of the said Act, and the same is hereby disallowed accordingly.

Whereof the Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of British Columbia and all persons whom it may concern are to take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

Assistant Clerk to the Privy Council.
His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor,
Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal, at Ottawa, this fifteenth day of February, nineteen hundred and nine.
